History 04-05-15

El Paso, TX - Officers from the El Paso Police Department's Central Regional Command Center responded to a stabbing in the 4000 block of Lackland just before midnight Sunday. Officer's investigation revealed that an altercation occurred between two males in the street at the address which escalated to a fight. During the fight, the victim was stabbed in the abdomen area. The suspect fled the area. The victim was ultimately transported to University Medical Center (UMC) after being taken by friends to the 7-11 and McKelligon and Alabama. The victim remains in critical condition at UMC. Crimes Against Persons (CAP) investigators were called to assist with the investigation. This investigation continues and no arrests have been made at this time.
